Through the support of the Wayne County Historical organizations, a countywide genealogical society, the Wayne County New York Genealogical Society (WCNYGS) was formed October 23, 2012 with forty-five charter members.

The Wayne County New York Genealogical Society is a nonprofit organization dedicated to

- Educating its members and the community about proper genealogical research methods and source documentation;
- Seeks to further the genealogical historical knowledge of its members and community;
- Endeavors to preserving records of genealogical value and make them available to others.

MEMBERSHIP

All persons interested in family history & genealogical research are invited to join the Wayne County New York Genealogical Society (WCNYGS).
